Erin,

I have been struggling to think of the words to say to you over the last week about the absolutely stunning photos you took at our wedding. For literally the first time in my life I have been rendered speechless.

When we knew nothing about our wedding location or date and searching "Vancouver Island Weddings" on the internet; we came across a link to your blog on your favourite locations and we fell in love with your images instantly. The rest is history. It goes without saying that having you at our wedding was a "non-negotiable" we would have changed our dates or followed you anywhere so long as we could get you there!

The pictures you took are so full of life, love and happiness - I have no idea how you can capture so much, but somehow you manage it. You are so crazy, insanely talented!!! We have sat every night, wine glass in hand, watching the slide show of all the pictures you took. We get to relive everything you captured, most of which we had forgotten! We had such an amazing day and its wonderful to see that come through in your photos.

Not only are literally every one of your pictures a work of art, you are also such an amazing person to have at a wedding. So calm, so fun and so full of energy - it's impossible not to smile when you're behind the camera. Many of my friends and family were nervous about getting their pictures taken, but you made the whole experience an absolute joy.

You are amazing Erin. Not only because you have such an incredible talent, but because you are truly such a special, wild, amazing person. I have so much love and appreciation for you and everything that you do. Thank you so very, very much for being a part of our wedding and making it as special as you did. There is literally no equal to the astounding Erin Wallis.

Thanks again Erin, we feel so lucky to have found you.

Lots of love,

Kristin & Jesse
